BACK STAGE by bill doll

Ezra Stone is known to all radio listeners as "Henry Aldrich," next week in "What a Life" you'll see him as that character in the George Abbott comedy that was responsible for the radio series . . . With Ezra as its star "What a Life" is now in its second hit year on Broadway . . . Ivoryton is the only place where the young actor will play his original role . . . Madge Evans has planned a busy season for herself, she'll do a number of different shows around the summer circuit . . . Mrs. Clancy Cooper has written a new comedy that may be seen on Broadway next fall . . . Danny Doane, usually on the Stiefel staff, is working this summer at the Crystal Lassies show at the N. Y. World's Fair . . .

Business here for the past three weeks has topped all records for those same weeks in seasons past . . . Among our students you'll find Eleanor Kilgallen, whose sister, Dorothy, is the Broadway columnist for the N. Y. Journal American . . . and Gloria Washburn, whose father, Charles Washburn, is the country's number one press agent . . . In bringing the drama to Connecticut Milton Stiefel gave up an opportunity to direct Gypsy Rose Lee, who just opened in Broadway in "I Must Love Someone". . . Something new this year. All the sound effects for our productions will be recorded right in Ivoryton on Irving Stiefel's new record making gadget . . . If you have a grandmother don't bring her to see "The Primrose Path."
